

Psst.... Keep this quiet....

We wanna tell you something.

Got a secret to tell or a special something you wanna get off your chest?
This is your chance.

Take this paper,
rip it out,
write what your heart desires.

This is your chance to tell your secret.
Tell her you love her,
tell him you think about him all the time.
Tell her you never meant to hurt her,
tell her you hurt just as much, even though it didn't show.
Tell him you knew it was him all along.
Tell her you are a better person because of her...
Tell him thank you....

Go, my little dumplings,
let go of your secrets.

Love,
The secret lovers at Little Burgundy
